

BLUE AND GOLD DINNER—Among the Cub Scouts at the annual Blue and Gold Dinner at the Reformed Church last night were, from left, Chipper Blaugrund, Rodney Sluyter, Den chief, John Barscz, Clinton Bailey, Eddie Gleason, Michael Fudjack, Ronnie Fralick, Richard Jackson, Ronald Jones and Carl VanDelinder, Den chief. (Staff Photo)

CUBS CONDUCT ANNUAL DINNER

About 100 attended the Cub Pack 3 Blue and Gold dinner last night at the Reformed Church, with presentation of awards and entertainment by Irving Truax, Ilion magician.

Clinton Bailey, cubmaster, welcomed as new members and presented membership cards to Donald Robertson, George Ellston and Bruce Kenna.

The Rev. and Mrs. Ayle A. Schutter and Mr. and Mrs. George J. Sluyter were guests. Mr. Schutter gave the invocation and benediction, and Sluyter spoke to the boys on "February, Month of Presidents," with reference to the lives of Washington and Lincoln and the "God and My Country" motto of the Scouts.

Awards were presented as follows: Roland Jones, four silver arrows, two gold arrows; Dick Jackson and Peter Kalynycz, one-year pins; Eddie Gleason, bobcat pin; Michael Fudjack, Clinton Bailey, bear badges; Dale Hall, Donald Fralick, wolf badges; Chipper Blaugrund, one gold, four silver arrows; John Barscz, wolf badge.

The dinner was served under supervision of the den mothers, Mrs. Annette Blaugrund, Mrs. Edna Failing and Mrs. Betty Fralick.