

IN CONFERENCE with Howard Kautz, assistant director of the National Boy Scout Volunteer Training Division, are left to right, Ashley Strong, neighborhood commissioner of Schuyler Lake; Mr. Kautz; Churchill Prosser, Mohawk, and Donald Bell, Ilion, assistant district commissioners of the Southern District, General Herkimer Council, Boy Scouts of America. The local Scouters attended a Commissioner Training Course at Schiff Scout Reservation, Mendham, N. J., the past week-end.

Four Scouters Attend Training Course In Jersey

Four area Scouters participated in a Boy Scout commissioner training session at Schiff Scout Reservation, Mendham, N. J., the past week-end.

Churchill Prosser, Mohawk, and Donald Bell, Ilion, assistant district commissioners of the Southern District; Ashley Strong, neighborhood commissioner of Schuyler Lake, and Tom Moore, scout executive, spent Saturday and Sunday at the National Scout Council training reservation reviewing latest scouting procedures relating to commissioner staffs.

Heading the training faculty were Howard Kautz and Robert Sproul, assistant directors of the National Scout Council Volunteer Training Division. Sessions opened Saturday noon and closed Sunday afternoon.

Topics reviewed included conducting the neighborhood commissioners' course and the district commissioner's job in the local Scout Council.

About 70 course participants from the states of New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Ohio attended.