ADDRESS: The postal address of the House is: Baden-Powell House, Queen's Gate, South Kensington, London, SW7 5JS. (Tel.: 01 - 584 0671).

ARRIVAL: Except in special circumstances, guests cannot be allowed into bedrooms or dormitories before midday.

BAGGAGE ROOM: Heavy baggage and camping gear should be deposited in the Trunk Room in the Basement.

BATHROOMS, Etc.: Normally, these are in the same corridor as your room. Please see that water taps are turned off and that baths and basins are cleaned after use.

CHURCH SERVICES: Details of churches in the locality are on the information board.

COFFEE BAR & DISCO: These are located in the Basement.

COMMON ROOMS: These are situated on the 2nd floor and are available for the use of resident guests.

DEPARTURE: Bedrooms and dormitories must be cleared by 1000 hrs. on morning of departure. Luggage may be left in the Baggage and Trunk Room in the Basement. Key at Reception Desk.

DOCTOR: In case of emergency the names of local Doctors may be obtained from the office.

DRYING ROOM: Outdoor clothing, etc., should be dried in the room specially provided for this purpose. Key at Reception Desk.

FIRE: In the event of fire, the nearest alarm bell on the floor landing should be sounded. Through draughts should be prevented by closing doors and windows. All staircases may be used for emergency exit. On no account use the lift.

FOOD AND DRINKS must not be taken into bedrooms and dormitories.

GARAGE SPACE: There is limited parking space in the Basement which is approached by a ramp from the rear entrance. A small charge is made for overnight parking. Key at Reception Desk.

INTERESTING PLACES: Particulars are available at the Reception Desk.

KITCHEN: This is definitely out-of-bounds and there are no facilities for cooking private food supplies.

LATE NIGHT ADMISSION: The front door will normally be locked at 2300 hrs. If you are likely to be out after that time, please notify Reception and state if garage is required.

LAUNDRY: The area is well served by launderettes. Details of these are available at the Reception Desk.

LIFT: The lift holds a maximum of eight persons. Care should be taken not to overload. Leaders in charge of parties are asked to co-operate in preventing any playing around with the lift. It should be used for upward journeys only.

LIGHTS: Please save electricity wherever possible.

LOCAL TRAVEL: Enquiries can be dealt with at Reception.

LOST PROPERTY: This will be dealt with in the General Office.

MEAL TIMES: Breakfast 0745—0900 hrs. Lunch 1230—1400 hrs. Evening Meal 1800—1915 hrs. Packed meals are available to order on application to Reception.

MAIL: All mail is dealt with at Reception.

NOISE: Please consider the other guests and, of course, our neighbours. There should be no noise after 2230 hrs.

PROVIDORE: This is situated on the ground floor.

REFRESHMENTS: Snacks and light refreshments will be available from machines in the Coffee Bar. Residents must not take them into the dormitories and bedrooms.

SOUVENIRS: These are obtainable from the Providore. The scrounging or thieving type of souvenir hunting has no place in Scouting.

STAFF QUARTERS: The staff are ready to help you, but they must have some time off duty and you are requested to respect the privacy of their quarters on the 6th floor. The 6th floor roof is out of bounds.

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS (Overseas):
Scouthouse, London, SW7 5JS.

TELEPHONES: Prepayment telephones for the use of guests are available on the 1st floor.

VALUABLES: Articles of value must not be left in unattended rooms. They may be deposited in the General Office. The Association cannot accept responsibility for loss of personal effects.

YOUR HELP: The staff will appreciate your co-operation. You are expected to make your own bed if staying more than one night, and to fold blankets and linen before breakfast on morning of departure.

The prompt return of all crockery and cutlery to the servery will also assist considerably.

If you would like to do a small job for the House during your stay, please contact the General office.
