Seal the Bond

Brotherhood membership in the Order of the Arrow is not a rank or a step up the ladder in the same sense as First Class to Star, Life to Eagle Scout.

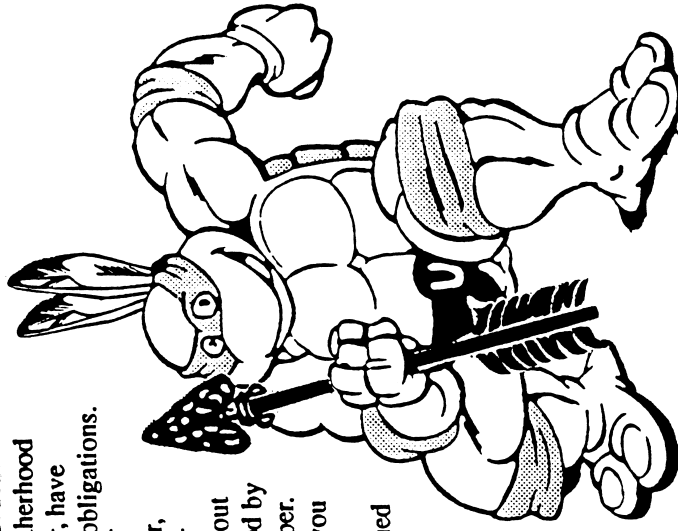

Brotherhood membership is the completion of the process of becoming a true Arrowman. Brotherhood members do not have special privileges that are not open to Ordeal members, except to attend Brotherhood Ceremonies. They do, however, have additional responsibilities and obligations.

After ten months or more of active membership in the Order, Ordeal members may seal their membership and learn more about the true meaning of brotherhood by becoming a Brotherhood member.

Why Brotherhood? When you took the Obligation at your induction, you pledged continued cheerful service throughout your life. If you try to live up to the Obligation, it follows that you seal the bond. As you recall at the ceremony, you were given a chance to back down. Obviously you didn't; you went on to accept the Obligation.

The Brotherhood does not bring along promotion or superiority of any kind. Brotherhood membership is not an elite group within the Order of the Arrow. In fact, the only real change is in your own mind. You will have lived up to the Obligation and strengthened your willingness to belong to our Order. If you are considering becoming Brotherhood and would like some further information, please write to:

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive committee of Unami Lodge meets at least eleven times a year to administer and carry out the Lodge Program. The committee, headed by the Lodge Chief, is composed of the five Lodge Officers, the Lodge and Staff Advisors, the Chapter Chiefs and the Lodge Committee Chairmen and their advisors. Only the youth members of the Committee (under 21 years of age) have a vote. The Chapter representatives are the most important members of the committee because they speak for the membership in their district. The Lodge Committee Chairmen report to the Executive Committee on the progress of their specific responsibilities to the Lodge's operation. The Chapter Officers and Lodge Committee Chairmen work together to obtain the Lodge goals and provide the membership with a full year of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness and Service.

THE LODGE COMMITTEES

ARCHIVES

This committee is responsible for all the archives of the Lodge including their display, at special events, the collection of present Lodge materials to be retained in the archives and maintaining the condition and order of the archives. The Lodge archives is made up of collections of patches, Lodge, Section, and National Properties, newsletters, committee reports, etc. The committee is also responsible for updating and the production of a Lodge History Book. If you enjoy collecting and are interested in Unami Lodge's History, then this is the committee for you.

CAMP PROMOTIONS

This committee works with the Council Camping Committee to develop a camping program with an emphasis on a summer camp promotion and year round camping. The committee works through the chapters to visit and promote camping opportunities to each troop and Pack in the council. Camp Promotions also works to compile, update and distribute a "Where to go Camping Book". If you enjoy camping, learning about camping opportunities throughout the nation and would like to see others enjoy the world of scout camping, then get involved with camp Promotions.

CEREMONIAL

This committee is responsible for setting up, training and conducting all Lodge Ceremonies. The committee is also responsible for the production and up-keep of all the Lodge Costumes. The committee learns about local Indian heritage and may have the opportunity to travel to local Indian powwows. If you enjoyed the ceremony you just took part in, if you want to become part of Unami Indian heritage then get involved with the mysterious world of ceremonies.

ELAGOMAT

"Elagomat" is the lenni Lenape word that means "friend," and that is what the Elangomats are, friends to all the Ordeal Candidates and Newly Inducted Ordeal Members. The committee is responsible for the training of Elangomats, for supplying Elangomats for all the Lodge Ordeals. The Elangomats keep in contact with the New Ordeal Members throughout their first year in the Lodge. Remember the person who was a "friend" to you through the Ordeal? If you would like to be that person for someone else, then ...
BE AN E-MAT!

EVENTS COMMITTEES

The Events Committees are Committees that handle the planning and running of all the major Lodge Events. (Spring Service, Conclave, Fall Fellowship, and Annual Dinner) Each event has a chairman and a committee in which you may be involved. If you enjoyed the event you just attended, or would like to become involved in the planning or production of an event, then call the appropriate chairman and volunteer.

FINANCE

This committee draws up a lodge Budget and works with the Lodge Treasurer to keep track of the Lodges finances. The committee is also responsible for the raising of funds for the Lodge's operation and supervising the purchase and production of Lodge Properties. If you like working with money and have ideas for new properties, then get involved with the Finance Committee.

MEMBERSHIP

The membership Committee is responsible for all the Lodge Membership records and keeping those records up to date in both the Lodge computer and the membership files. The committee also handles the mailing of dues cards, Lodge Mailings and Chapter Newsletters. If you would like to help with keeping the Lodge in Order and making sure each members get the attention he deserves, join the Membership Committee.

NOMINATIONS & ELECTIONS

This committee secures nominations for Lodge Offices from the membership. The committee screens the nominees and makes proposals for candidates for office. At the Fall Fellowship, the committee runs the elections and sees that all the election rules are enforced. If you are interested in joining the Nominations and Elections Committee, Give the Chairman a call.

ORDEAL/BROTHERHOOD COMMITTEE

This is the committee that works with the Chapters to conduct Unit Elections for those who are eligible to become a part of the Order of the Arrow. The committee then keeps records of when people will take their ordeal. When an Ordeal Member becomes eligible for Brotherhood Membership, this committee contacts them and conducts proper reviews.

PUBLICATIONS

The main responsibility of this committee is to produce and mail the Voice of the Turtle, the official publication of Unami Lodge. The committee is responsible for judging the Chapter Newsletter Award, and makes submissions to the Philly Scouter. If your interested in newsletter production, writing, reporting or photography, then publications is for you.

RULES & PROCEDURES

The Major task of this committee is to propose amendments and changes to the Lodge's Rules and Procedures Manual and the Operations Manual. These two documents are the foundation for the operation of Unami Lodge and provide all the information for the Lodges smooth and continued service. If you would like to make sure that the people running the Lodge are doing the correct job or think you can improve the Lodge's operation, then get involved with this committee.
