Seal the Bond

Brotherhood membership in the Order of the Arrow is not a rank or a step up the ladder in the same sense as First Class to Star, Life to Eagle Scout.

Brotherhood membership is the completion of the process of becoming a true Arrowman. Brotherhood members do not have special privileges that are not open to Ordeal members, except to attend Brotherhood Ceremonies. They do, however, have additional responsibilities and obligations.

After ten months or more of active membership in the Order, Ordeal members may seal their membership and learn more about the true meaning of brotherhood by becoming a Brotherhood member.

Why Brotherhood? When you took the Obligation at your induction, you pledged continued cheerful service throughout your life. If you try to live up to the Obligation, it follows that you seal the bond. As you recall at the ceremony, you were given a chance to back down. Obviously you didn't; you went on to accept the Obligation.

The Brotherhood does not bring along promotion or superiority of any kind. Brotherhood membership is not an elite group within the Order of the Arrow. In fact, the only real change is in your own mind. You will have lived up to the Obligation and strengthened your willingness to belong to our Order.

If you are considering becoming Brotherhood and would like some further information, please write to:
