

TREASURE ISLAND HISTORY (CONTINUED)

TREASURE ISLAND HISTORY (CONTINUED)

- 1936 TI Map (mural) was painted and the legend written by Albert L. Spicer and was hung in the Dining Hall, where it can be seen today.
- 1937 Dining room wing annexed to the Unami Lodge House.
- 1941 Rolston Lodge erected and dedicated on July 13th in memory of Horace "Shorty" Rolston.
- 1942 World War II - Many campers and staff members serve in the American Red Cross and Armed Forces overseas.
- 1955 On August 19th, hurricane Diane flooded the island. The high water mark can be found above the doorway to the kitchen in the Dining Hall. Staff members were evacuated by air.
- 1956 Unami Lodge rebuilds the damage from the storm.
- 1958 The swimming pool was built and opened. From 1913 to 1957, Scouts swam in the river. Goodman Stockade was rebuilt. Marshall Island was purchased from the YMCA by Philadelphia Council, BSA.
- 1960 Unami Lodge held its 45th Anniversary at TI.
- 1961 Mitchell suspension foot bridge was erected to connect the Southern end of Marshall (Skeeter) Island, PA and the Northern tip of Treasure Island, NJ.
- 1963 Council celebrated the 50th Anniversary of TI and produced the Golden Anniversary History Book.
- 1964 Old NJ side cable ferry steps, buried in the 1955 flood, were discovered by the camp staff.
- 1965 June 12th, 50th Anniversary of Unami Lodge and the Order of the Arrow celebrated at TI was attended by Urner Goodman and Carroll Edson. They dedicated and placed a plaque at the OA ceremonial grounds.
- 1969 Eagle Island opens as a wilderness camp.
- 1972 TI closes as a summer camp but remains open for weekend camping. A capital improvement fund was established to refurbish TI's waste disposal and underbrush. Eagle Island opens as a summer camp with a modern administration building, shower house, pool and latrines.

- 1975 Unami celebrates its 60th Anniversary at TI. Dr. Goodman visits TI for the last time.
- 1979 Eagle Island closes as a summer camp.
- 1980 TI reopens as a summer camp. "Connie's" gas station and parking lot were acquired and becomes the camp ranger residence. Dr. Goodman dies at the age of 89. Unami hosts its 65th Anniversary with 450 participants. The Dining Hall is used for the first time since 1971.
- 1981 TI Dining Hall reopened for use during summer camp.
- 1982 Numerous camp renovations were undertaken including: new water and electrical lines; every building was painted; latrine facilities built at every camp site; additional shower built near the Mitchell Bridge; additional sleeping quarters annexed onto the Unami Lodge House; bathroom facilities added to Rolston and Unami Lodges and a rifle range is built on the Southern tip of Marshall's Island.
- 1983 Ceremonial grounds were refurbished with new benches and stonework. In conjunction with the National Order of the Arrow Conference in New Brunswick, thousands visit Treasure Island for an encampment. A 70th Anniversary Camp Staff Reunion was held.
- 1985 Unami Lodge hosts Section NE-5A Conclave at TI.
- 1986 Swimming pool deck was refurbished.
- 1987 The Bernard Klein Memorial Nature Lodge was constructed.
- 1988 Treasure Island celebrates its Diamond (75th) Anniversary.
- 1990 Unami Lodge celebrates its Diamond Anniversary with the hosting of the Section NE-4B Conclave and a weekend celebration at Treasure Island.