WELCOME to the ROCKIES

Welcome to America's vacationland, the rugged Rocky Mountains. During your visit, we hope you will see as much of this magnificent region as possible.

Continental Oil Company has a special interest in this region because our company was founded in the Rocky Mountains more than 90 years ago. Today, like scouting, we are international in our operations.

As a former scout, I can appreciate the fun and excitement you are enjoying now. As a friend, I urge you also to spend a moment thinking beyond the present — to the day when you begin planning for your career as an adult.

When you do, I hope you will consider the petroleum industry. Our industry offers opportunities throughout the world, and those opportunities will grow greater in the years ahead.
