Jordan Wins Eagle Badge

Richfield Springs — James Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyron A. Jordan, 31 East Main Street, was awarded the Eagle badge, the highest award in scouting, at ceremonies Sunday in the Richfield Springs Central School cafeteria.

The Rev. Stanley E. Smith opened the program with prayer. Scoutmaster James Kurkowski welcomed guests and Scout Douglas French led the opening ceremonies. French has 19 merit badges toward an Eagle Scout badge.

Ted Russell, executive of the General Herkimer Council, spoke on merit badges. The presentation to Jordan was made by Clarence Yule, Frankfort, chairman of the Council's advancement committee.

Kamargo Lodge, Order of the Arrow, took part in the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan also received recognition. The former is a director of the county Council, and Mrs. Jordan is a former den mother who will serve as chairman of fund-raising for the Boy Scouts in the Richfield Springs area.

IN A COURT of Awards, Douglas French received the Life award presented by assistant scoutmaster Merton Skinner Jr.

The new Eagle Scout, who joined the Scouts in 1961, earned 21 badges. He attended the Boy Scout Jamboree in Valley Forge in 1964. He is a member of the debating team at the central school and is an altar boy at St. Joseph's Church.

National awards for the 50-mile hike went to Johnson, William Hecox, Lent, Robert Guardi, James Kurkowski, Dibble, Fassett, Timothy Cunningham, Weires, Paul Cunningham, Tabor, Peplinski, Von Dauber, West, Manion, Smith, French and M. Starr.
